FOREWORD

In presenting this issue of the Quincy Directory, No 12 in the regular series, we have deviated somewhat from the old stereotyped way of making up, adding a new dress of type and now have three columns on a page to show at one opening many more names, thereby doing away with turning leaves.

We bespeak for the live business men who have contributed toward the support of the Quincy Directory a liberal patronage, their business cards being clearly represented in the advertising department and typographically speaking a great improvement over works of this nature on the old basis.

We trust our efforts will be appreciated by a deserving municipality whom we try to serve

Respectfully,

W A GREENOUGH & CO,

Forty Ideals Have Built Our Big Business

*Our aspirations to please every customer, and give them more, and better, for their
DOLLAR than they can get elsewhere*

¶ To have them feel shopping here is PLEASURABLE, not drudgery.

¶ Honesty and determination to carry the largest and best, in quality, stock of GROCERIES and PROVISIONS in the city, have won for us the plaudits of thousands of satisfied customers.

¶ Don't you think it's something to be proud of to be able to challenge any one to even match our prices, quality considered.

¶ It does not cover the situation for us to say "the best and cheapest." What do the public say? One visit to our store and witness the lively buying will convince you.

¶ We simply ask a trial and leave it to you to decide whether we are eligible to be called the MODEL FOOD STORE or not.
